

So Good To Be Here

Boz Scaggs

Now... now it's over baby
I can come home to you
Just as I should do

And you're... waiting there for me
Just as you should be
Hope to see you soon

Now that you've got all the things
That you need
And you're still waitin' for me

So good to be here
So good to see your face
So good to be loved by you
And we are both here waiting

All I can say or do, yeah
Is give my love to you
Just as I should do

I can't imagine me leaving you
Wasting my time
When I wanna be with you baby

So good to be here
So good to see your face
So good to be loved by you

Everyday it's hard to make you stay
Stealing your heart
You're gonna run away from me, baby

So good to be here
So good to see your face
So good to be loved by you
Every day in every way
I want to keep you girl in every way
