

Still Falling For You

Boz Scaggs

Ever since the day I saw your face
I've been making plans
Seemed kind of absurd when
There wasn't much for you
So I put a little word in
Just for you
Started making strategies
To get you for myself

I love your eyes
Your crazy sighs
Were tantalizing me
Push some pride aside
Mmmm too bad
I could run and hide
But I'd rather be had
Mostly it's just lonely
Only being lonely by myself

And I'm still falling for you
The thrill is still brand new
No matter what I do
It all begins and ends with you

He's hearing voices
Seems the choices
Really are but few
Hey he makes a break
Get out of there
Me act like a fool
Stand and stare
See the jokers actin'
Like there's nothin' happenin'
He just ate his cocktail napkin

Summer breezes
Through the trees
As on and on it goes
They begin to reminisce
He walks her home
And then a kiss
The rest is known
And so we leave our hero
No longer batting zero
He's in the majors now

And I'm still falling for you
The thrill is still brand new
No matter what I do
It all begins and ends with you
Baby

Cause I'm still falling for you
And the thrill is still brand new
No matter what I do
It all begins and ends with you

And I'm still falling for you
No matter what I do
It all begins and ends with you
Oh

Cause I'm still falling for you
No matter what I do
It all begins and ends with you
