

Trailer Park

Bracket

I can't expect to leave a life I've always lived
I can't expect to leave a life I've always lived
A father who likes drinking
And a mother who doesn't care
When everyone makes fun of how poor my family is
They laugh at my misfortune, and at the clothes that I wear

I can't ever leave my trailer park
It's not safe to go out after dark