

All Is One

Brad

I'm walking on the air now, 600 degrees
Feelin' not too hot now, yeah this is the scene
And you know that the world, is falling into times
Yeah the motor city, is sinking into the seas
Yeah yeah
Open up man, tell me do you like ?

Everbody's been tellin' me that we can be doin' fine
If we all give it time
It should be an open world and I am feelin' fine
You know the world will never die
Because...
Open the door, tell them ?, come inside
Open the door, letters fall, come inside
Open the doors, letters fall, come inside
Open the door, letters fall, come inside

Against hatred
Against hatred

Against hatred
Against hatred
All is one, all is one, all is one...
