

Couch T-bone

Brad

Waters rise to meet the sound of day
Oceans swell to have the final say
But who's to give, and who's to take away?
Have to try, it's better to try
So we all can sit together
It's one for all, and all for one
It's holding hands, you havin' fun?
It's who you are, we are alone
So hold on tight and don't let go
Don't be afraid to let it show
A king and queen, oh don't you know?
A king and queen, oh don't you know?
That you are me...
In the bottom of my heart
In the stories of the past
Watch the face, you know too well
Watch the shadow made of diamonds
It's one for all, and all for one
It's holding hands, you havin' fun?
It's who you are, we are alone
So hold on tight and don't let go
Don't be afraid to let it show
A king and queen, oh don't you know?
A king and queen, oh don't you know?
That you are me...
