honey please don't ignore me please accept this call i'm on the corner of cough and cold and i'm a lovestruck lost soul

please save me
from the superpowers that i don't believe in
save me please
i'm lost and alone
i can't come home
i'm stuck in a phone booth

honey understand me
i'm not sure to fly
in fact i'm super stupid tonight and all the loose ends remain untied

save me please
i'm lost and alone
i can't come home
i'm stuck in a phone booth again

but once in your arms

we'll rise above the ground you and me and the beautiful aerial view of sunrise city

i'm never coming down

in your arms

we'll rise above the clouds me and you in the sweetest sheets of blue

but come and pick me up first please.
