

Sad Wings

Brand New Sin

My Tattoo'd arms
They scored a time
Of my history's past
And that hill i climbed Here i am in a tunnel and painted images can break them up

My eyes are blind to lies you told me hidden scars you thought they'd hold me leave m helpless and all alone

Burnt and blistered
I walked a fire
These red hot coals
Leave me old and tired
Here i am in the dark and peices of you still in my blood

they'd hold me leave m helpless and all alone, Sad wings blood soaked and stainted i told you once i broke these chains now im standing here on my own
