

Batter Up

Brand New

In the valley of your slowly-fading memory
All the pastures, bathed in sun and sunlight where you won't graze
Paths you won't take?

Spin around now
Can you hear me?
Am I still buzzing in my sleep?
What does it feel like to shine between everything?

It's never going to stop
Batter up
Give me your best shot
Batter up

I saw something in the night sky over Camden
Turned around and drove the opposite direction 'cause I fear them
Now when will they come?

You were all I see
You were everything
Cast about you, turning up your gravity and pull me in
Or under

It's never going to stop
Batter up
Give me your best shot
Batter up
And even though the roar died in your throat
The lines get blurred
Lose whoever you once were
Died and returned to the earth
Found ourselves back
In love

It's never going to stop
Batter up
Give me your best shot
Batter up
Never gets forgot
Batter up
Don't get what you want
Batter up
Batter up
Batter up
