

Don't Let It Go To Your Head

Brand Nubian

Now a lot of people think this is easy as it looks
Books and books of rhyme concepts and hooks
Session to session to get thoughts manifested
Stressin' and stressin' to hit the world with a blessin'

Lot of people often ask, "Puba how you givin' back?"
The way I give back is through the knowledge of my raps like a gem, for all my people caught out on a limb who be givin' in, caught out on a stem, who don't want to win

"I'm feelin' you I know you gettin' down like that but what I'm sayin' Dog is let me hold a little somethin' black!
I'll hit you back!" come on dead that, that's the tenth time
I heard that -- all you know is gimme I work hard for every penny that I make -- video and tape

LP and CD, if I fall, you feedin' me?
No dough to spread, always keep a level head
Long as my seeds get fed, it won't go to my head, so..

"Don't let it go your head, no!"
Everybody love a star, when he on top
"Don't don't let it go your head, no!"
Nobody comes around when the star start to drop

"Don't let it go your head, no!"
Strive to help others who help themselves
"Don't let it go your head, no no no no!"
Knowledge of self, and good health and wealth

The ladies are datin', no question but you can't tell her that 'Cause subconsciously, we put our hand out
Like I'm that ATM cat, drop me off at Chase
Earring in the navel like you sex-you-al

Royalty, while the whole loyalty means [shit]
Get wreck in the kitchen like she were on the cooking channel and didn't have a [nigga] in the car do'
Got ??? she's a mother to be, I hope they're twins

Give me a whole tribe and be as sexy as Janet was on the cover of Vibe
She slick talk, playin' you well she got a girlfriend that used to tap

back when, so she always worryin' with you Tell her hold it down ma, I give you high ranks
Sometimes you wild but I guess that's your style
If you lay up in my high rise, will you stay wise?

Will the slave thighs open your eyes, girl..
"Don't let it go your head, no!"
Don't believe those jealous type cats
"Don't don't let it go your head, no!"

Cause I'm the one makin' some late night cash
"Don't let it go your head, no!"

I told you girl my home is my castle
"Don't let it go your head, no no no no no!"

Understand it won't be no hassle

I heard your single on the battle of the beats
It won five nights, I bet you had the time of your life
Workin' so hard, and so long, to make a record
Finally to make a song people respected

Collect the dough at a show as you sip the Mo'
Now you hittin' the flo', you never hit befo'
Got you trippin', how much better could it get?
Got the leather with the work check, all up in the whip

They're all legitimate, callin' it what it's really not
This is just one single you got, that's really hot
Tomorrow it could bust just like a blood clot
Leave you in the dust with your body to rot

Another party to rock, if it's you or if it's me it doesn't matter cause it just won't stop
Don't let your gray matter pop
'Cause when you release the album

If they don't cop, you gonna get dropped, so..
"Don't let it go your head, no!"
'Cause one single don't make you a hit
"Don't don't let it go your head, no!"

Stay true to who you are don't never forget
"Don't let it go your head, no!"
Keep your feet on solid ground
"Don't let it go your head, no no no no no!"

'Cause what goes up, must come down, uhh
"Don't let it go your head, no!"
"Don't don't let it go your head, no!"
"Don't let it go your head, no!"
"Don't let it go your head, no no no no no!"
