It's Alright by Brandon Heath

Tiny boat on an angry sea, sails torn an tattered
How could Jesus be fast asleep, like it doesn't matter.
Soon as He opens His eyes, the storm just dies.

Chorus:

It's alright, everything will be okay
Just hold tight, I'll be with you the whole way
When you're weak, I'll be strong
Keep going, we're almost home,
It's alright, everything will be okay.
(Everything will be okay ? 2nd time)

Mother Mary's got a broken heart, from the word's they're sayin g
Her baby boy's being torn apart, by the world He's saving,
He says "Mother, don't cry for me. You know where I'll be."

Repeat Chorus

No promise of an easy road, just a destination
Next time you forget your home, somebody's waiting
Soon as you open your eyes, you realize?

Last Chorus

It's alright, everything will be okay
Just hold tight, I'll be with you the whole way
When you're weak, He'll be strong
Keep going, you're almost home,
When you're weak, He is strong
Keep going, you're almost home

It's alright, everything will be okay.
