

Love Does

Brandon Heath

This one goes out to the world of changers
Shining your light in the face of danger

Oh,
Tell us what you know

You're a saint, you're a son, you're a promise keeper Bottom of the well, still digging down deeper

Oh,
How far you're gonna go?

Chasing down hope
moving on dreams
Taking that path
Maybe it'll lead you home
maybe it won't

--

Nobody knows
why your heart is broken Nobody cries
while your prayers are going up
But Love Does

Nobody walks
on the road you're paving Nobody sees
all the souls you're saving
Oh,
But Love Does
Love Does
Love Does

This is for the one in the frontline fighting Ringing that bell
over everybody

Oh,
Tell us what you know

Knocking down doors
in the midnight alley Looking for life
in the dessert valley

Oh,
How far you're gonna go?

Chasing down hope
moving on dreams
Taking that path

maybe it don't

Nobody knows
Nobody cries
while your prayers are going up

Nobody walks
Oh,
But Love Does
Love Does
Love Does

You're a renegade, You're an outlaw
of love's crusade
And they don't know who you are

They don't know,
They don't know but...

Love Does
I'm telling you
Love Does

Somebody knows,
somebody cries,
somebody feels,
Love Does

Somebody walks, somebody sees,
somebody knows,
Love Does

Love Does
