

Sore Eyes

Brandon Heath

You're down all the way down
Can't shake the feeling
You've tried
You learned how to hide
You've got your reasons

I bet
You're full of regret
Sweet and bitter
Please consider

Sore eyes
What's up with that face
Think we can trace these lines
Back to fine
I'm sure
You've been here before
Sore eyes
Such a sight to see
If I can bring that light
Back to your eyes to stay
What would you say
Instead of walking away

No sign
Of roses or wine
But you've got my attention
No lines
All out of rhymes
I just wanna hold you

I bet
I'll make you forget
Loves not bitter
Reconsider

Chorus

Wipe away those sore eyes
You don't have to cry

Chorus
