

Command Q, Command Z

Brandtson

The plastic on the windows change the atmosphere.
I hear you coming up the stairs.
Parking meter violation flags are showing.
The optimistic side of me called off again.
Hello. I've been self destructing again.
I'm off the track.
My compliments to the way you fit in.
It's so unfair.
I'm waiting for this to finally come undone.
I'm waiting for this to suddenly fall down.

Command is q.
I've tried a hundred times.
Impossible win. I'm waiting.
Still waiting for this to fall down and take over.
All over.
It can't be this easy.
I'm fighting and waiting.
It's not what I wanted.
Won't always be waiting.
