

Lie To Me

Brandtson

Lie to me,
Oh baby, lie to me.
Take this away,
And lie to me.

It's inside you,
And I don't know if I
Want the truth, tonight

So take what you've learned
And lay back and close your eyes
Pretend that there's an answer
And that everything is alright

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make
And this is more than I can take
And why, say it's true

Wait, wait, the truth is, that you're just hurt
So wait, wait a minute, just wait a minute
The proof is, the proof is it's in your words
Let's think about it, let's think about it
Wait, wait it can't be, it can't be true,
Just say it isn't, just say it isn't.
The truth is, the truth is, it's all on you.
Can't we talk about it, let's talk about it.

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do.
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make,
And this is more than I can take.
And why, say it's true.

Lie to me,
Oh baby, lie to me.
Take this away,
And lie to me.

Lie to me,
Oh baby, lie to me.
Take this away,
And lie to me.

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make
And this is more than I can take
And why, say it's true
