

I Dedicate (Part I)

Brandy

Yo yo what's up B?

What's up bro, how ya doin'?

What's up yo, yo I'm alright
You know this is the last day of the album

Sweet but just don't think it's complete
Until I dedicate a song
To the people who inspired me to sing
Know what I'm sayin'?

Yeah right well all you gotta do
Is what inspired you to sing

Well my daddy he taught me everything I know
My little brother Ray J. he taught me a lot of moves
And my mom she got the tongue you see?
Whitney Houston that's my mentor all the way
And Aretha Franklin much respect to her
Stevie Wonder, umm who else?
Anthony, Grady, Lil' Grady and Terry

Tear it up

Jeff, Nyasha, Shena
This is for y'all

Ooh, when I was and I was listening to you
Your voice gave me inspiration
That's when I knew that I wanted to sing
For the world, was my motivation, hey

I dedicate to you
This song's for you
I give you my voice
This song's for you
