

Babies Breath

Brave Saint Saturn

Incandescent moon is shining
Just for you tonight
Shimmering a golden halo
Does it follow just beyond your sight?

Sigh
You're an angel
Wanting wings for flight
Tonight
Baby's breath in the waxing light

Glassy seas of blue
I will dream of you

Let's close our eyes till daylight comes
Baby's breath and chrysanthemums
So beaming blue these dreaming skies
In soundless sleep, now close your eyes

Till daylight
Till daylight comes
Till daylight
Till daylight comes
Just close your eyes till daylight comes

I keep feeling that the strangest
Peace is all around
In the speechless, in this quiet
Angels never make a single sound

Sigh
Baby's breath and lilacs so profound
Falling down
Softest moonlight making garlands
Forms the crown

Glassy seas of blue
I will dream of you

Let's close our eyes till daylight comes
Baby's breath and chrysanthemums
So beaming blue these dreaming skies
In soundless sleep, now close your eyes

Till daylight
Till daylight comes
Till daylight
Till daylight comes
Just close your eyes till daylight comes

Just close your eyes till daylight comes
Till daylight comes
