

Close Your Eyes

Breaking Benjamin

Let forever take me in.
Now I know that I'm alive
Give me something to forgive, as the wicked come to life
Show me where it all begins, as I watch this world divide
Hope will guide you to the end and there will be no last goodbye
For all live and die.
Leave it all behind

Take away the dark inside and lead me to the light
All will fade before your eyes as we turn the tide
I will bring the dream to life.
Hold on. Just hold on
I will keep you here inside.
Just close your eyes

Take the rebel from within.
Now I know that I'll survive
Show me how to play pretend as I watch this world collide
Fate will guide you to the end and there will be no hope to hide
For all live and die.
Leave it all behind

Take away the dark inside.
Lead me to the light
All will fade before your eyes as we turn the tide
I will bring the dream to life.
Hold on. Just hold on
I will keep you here inside.
Just close your eyes

Leave it all behind
Take away the dark inside.
Lead me to the light
All will fade before your eyes as we turn the tide
I will bring the dream to life.
Hold on. Just hold on
I will keep you here inside.
Hold on. Just hold on
I will keep you here inside.
Just close your eyes
