

Angry side

Breaking Point

I know you've got your reasons
Your reasons to leave him
You'll get to start again
I know you've been through the stages
The fears and the rages
You've got to let it go
Don't remind me of the angry side you knew
That's not defined as love
So put it behind you
It's true he used to confine you
Used force to deny you
But now you can walk away
It's you. The future's in your hands
I know that you can
You've got to let it go
Don't tell him again
No, jus take him away
I know you've got your reasons
Your reasons to leave here
You'll get to start again
It's you the future's in your hands
I know that you can
You've got to let it go
