Hey World be very afraid
Baby girl baby girl I'm not afraid

Don't try to run try to run they're coming
You'll never let this go

I got plenty of time to waste on you
And if you travel alone can I come to I've been tryin so hard to get it into you
And if you want to ride travel from the inside
I'm the light and everybody's walking my way
I'll take another, I'm not afraid
I know it's jealousy cause all eyes on me, know it's jealousy c ause I'm kill'n
