

That's Classy

Breathe Carolina

I should tell you now it's on the line
So sorry girl, it's all I know
Such a pretty face
It's so sad to say
Are you, are you dreaming

I guess it's safe to say that I've got you now

You know you're nothing that I wanted
So cupid never really made it
So keep dreaming, you're never gonna taste me
(Just give it a rest, you never were what I wanted, bitch)

Why can't you get it
I need you out of my head
Need you out of my head
If this is the beginning, then it's time I start contemplating death
Over my dead body that you'll see me again

And every night I'm shaking
Every night you're waking
And every night I'm shaking

You are like
I got you goin, I got you goin

You know you're nothing that I wanted
So cupid never really made it
So keep dreaming, you're never gonna taste me
(Just give it a rest, you never were what I wanted, bitch)
