

Give A Hand Take A Hand

Brenda Lee

Wish the world was run by all little children
We could be happy again
And we won't hurt when we're like little children
We won't ever feel the pain
When my fight for life on earth is over
And I leave 'cause I can't stand it
Just let the world, let it keep right on lovin'
We'll all join hands another day

Everybody's got to feel the pain
Everybody's got to take the hurt
Everybody's got to fall in love to make everybody understand
Everybody's got to be to take pain

I love you, I told you a million times
Do you believe what I said?
All my love belongs to you here after
We'll all join hands another day

Everybody's got to feel the hurt
Everybody's got to take the pain
Everybody's got to fall in love to make everybody understand
Everybody's got to be to take the pain
