

Heading Home

Brenda Lee

I'll walk in the sunshine and I'll walk in the rain
Yes I'll walk along because I'm heading home to you
I'll walk through the meadows and I walk through the plains
Yes I'll walk along because I'm heading home to you

Well I'll walk through the darkness believe me I'll walk through the plains
Yes I'll walk every morning believing that dawn has come
Yes I'll walk on my elbows yes and I'll walk on my knees
Yes I'll walk along cause I'm heading home to you

Well I'll walk through the darkness believe me I'll walk through the plains
Yes I'll walk every morning believing that dawn has come
Yes I'll walk on my elbows yes and I'll walk on my knees
Yes I'll walk along cause I'm heading home to you
