

Just Another Lie

Brenda Lee

Why do I cry why do I sigh
When I know oh when I know deep down inside
What you told me was just another lie

Everyday I get the blues
I get those bad kind of blues I just can't lose
What ya told me was just another lie

I should know better by now I shouldn't trust you like I do
But when you roll those great big eyes
You're just like an angel high of the blue

Why do I cry why do I sigh
When I know oh when I know deep down inside
What you told me was just another lie

I should know better by now I shouldn't trust you like I do
But when you roll those great big eyes
You're just like an angel high of the blue

Why do I cry why do I sigh
When I know oh when I know deep down inside
What you told me was just another lie
