

There's More To Me Than What You Can See

Brenda Lee

I'm a jukebox mama with a painted smile
I'm a little crazy, but I'm not that wild
Take it or leave me its just my style
For there's more to me than what you can see

I like to party and the neon lights
I can be tempted but its gotta be right
Don't take no strangers home with me at night
For there's more to me than what you can see

My love ain't been no bed of roses
Just got moments of romance
A piece of life is all I'm asking
I paid the price, I paid it twice
To have the right to take a chance

I'm liberated, but I know what I feel
I look a little phoney, but I know what's real
And if I say I do it, you know I will Cause, there's more to me than what you can see

My love ain't been no bed of roses
Just got moments of romance
A piece of life is all I'm asking
I paid the price, I paid it twice
To have the right to take a chance
