

Begin

Brendan James

Become the champion of the numb, earn their trust, embrace the strength of one.
Decide it can be done.
Corrupt the worst of us, capsize the sinking love forgive them from the start, command with a melting heart

Begin be not afraid, fall in the day is brave Remember what has happened in our past, so much is happening right now,
So much can come, so much will come.
So much can come..
