

F.i.f.o.

Brennan Heart

You can do whatever the fuck you want
But if you walk this way you better fit in or fuck off!
Fit in or fuck off, motherfucker!

This is me, these are my people
We party harder than the others you know
We're born free, created equal
We can be friends if you respect the code

There's no room for hating in this life we love
It's either fit in. or fuck off!

This is me, this is my music
I like it just a little harder sometimes
Now why don't we, go out and lose it
Freedom is free 'cause it's all in the mind

There's no room for hating in this life we love
It's either fit in (fit in)
Or fuck off!

Fit in (fit in)
Or fuck off!

There's no room for hating in this life we love
It's either fit in... or fuck off!
