

Face The Enemy

Brennan Heart

In this corporate-powered world
Fear is the only enemy
Face the enemy

Once you dread potential danger
You are bound by fear
Now, you can choose your own level of fear
From caution to phobia, from dread to paranoia
In this corporate-powered world
Fear is the only enemy
Face the enemy

They keep you in fear of losing your job
Fear of losing a loved one
Fear of a heart attack

Face... the... enemy...
