

We Can Escape

Brennan Heart

We can run
The think is done
There is nothing to be running from
We live in a world
Full of make believes
Tell the people to be like fucking machines
We can escape
Cause there is a place
Where we can be free
From all the rage
From all the lies
We open the skies
Realize that we don't live
If we don't feel life
If we don't feel the life

We can run
The think is done
There is nothing to be running from
We live in a world
Full of make believes
Tell the people to be like fucking machines
We can escape
Cause there is a place
Where we can be free
From all the rage
From all the lies
We open the skies
Realize we don't live
If we don't feel alive
If we don't feel the life
