

Who Am I

Brett Dennen

Who am I?
I wonder why sometimes I don't seem to know
Where did I begin?
When will I end?
How far can I go?

Who are you?
Do you even have a clue?
When you look inside, what do you see?
Do you know your family?
Do you know your enemy?
Is there someone else you'd rather be?

Who are we?
Can we be free?
Is it written in the sky?
Are we immune
Are we in tune?
Is it in the wind passing by?

Who are you?
Do you even have a clue?
When you look inside, what do you see?
Do you know your family?
Do you know your enemy?
Is there someone else you'd rather be?

Close your eyes and realize
Maybe you've been here before
Take your time and change your mind
Find out what you're looking for

Who are you?
Do you even have a clue?
When you look inside, what do you see?
Do your know your family?
Do you know your enemy?
Is there someone else you'd rather be?
