

Heartbreaker

Brett Eldredge

You're better than the movies
I know how it ends, but I can't stop
Watching you ruin me like this
I heard you slip out the door
Heard you backin' out the drive at 10 after 4
I bet your kiss on my lips
Knowin' it's the last one that I'll get

When I go high, you go low
You spill my dreams all down the road
Like a gypsy on the run
I'm all in and then you're done
You're a beautiful time waster
You're a shake my world earthquaker
You're the best heartbreaker I know

You're puttin' up pictures
You know, the ones I'm supposed to be in
You say "I miss you"
Then I never hear from you again
You got it down to an art
You watch me fall and disappear in the dark, yeah
You're a silent assassin, I can't stop it once it happens

When I go high, you go low
You spill my dreams all down the road
Like a gypsy on the run
I'm all in and then you're done
You're a beautiful time waster
You're a shake my world earthquaker
You're the best heartbreaker I know

Why you gotta run, why you gotta run?
Why you gotta run, why you gotta run?

When I go high, you go low
You spill my dreams all down the road
Like a little gypsy on the run
I'm all in and then you're done
You're a beautiful time waster
You're a shake my world earthquaker
You're the best heartbreaker I know

Why you gotta be a heartbreaker, heartbreaker?
You're so good at breaking my heart
Yeah it's true, all you
You little heartbreaker
Oh, you little heartbreaker
You gotta be, gotta be, gotta be, gotta be
So good at breaking my heart
All you, that's what you do
