

No Stopping You

Brett Eldredge

Ever since you were a little girl
Daddy told you, you could run the world
I knew that when we met that day
When you were sitting in the corner sipping up gray
You had the sweetest dreams in your eyes
Burning with the fire chasing sunset skies
As much as I wanted to hold you I couldn't hold you back

Their's no stopping you
Cause your mind set to
Where your heart says go
Go on go girl go
Hope you find me in a stranger's smile
Hope you hear me in the lonely miles
You gotta do what you were born to do
Cause their's no stopping you

As you're looking out the window when you board a train
Take a sip, will you say my name
When you get lost on the silver coast
Will you stop for a minute and dance with my ghost
In the flowers on the streets of Rome
Do you catch a scent of my cologne
Just when I think you might wanna come back home

Their's no stopping you
Cause your mind set to
Where your heart says go
Go on go girl go
Hope you find me in a stranger's smile
Hope you hear me in the lonely miles
You gotta do what you were born to do
Cause their's no stopping you

Sometimes I see you
When no one's there
And the wind blows through
Your golden hair
Whiskey burn
And the records spin
I pray that you'll come back again
But until then
Until then

Their's no stopping you
Cause your mind set to
Where your heart says go
Go on go girl go
Hope you find me in a stranger's smile
Hope you hear me in the lonely miles
You gotta do what you were born to do
Cause their's no stopping you
