I work down at Ashbury Hills Minimum wage but it pays the bills Cleanin' floors and leading hymns on Sunday

Katherine Davis, room 303 Sweetest soul you ever could meet I bring her morning coffee everyday

She calls me Raymond
She thinks I'm her son
Tells me get washed up for supper
Before your daddy gets home

She goes on about the weather How she can't believe it's already 1943 She calls me Raymond And that's all right by me

She talks about clothes on the line in the summer air Christmas morning and Thanksgiving prayer
And stories of a family that I never had
Well, sometimes I find myself wishing I'd been there

When she calls me Raymond She thinks I'm her son Tells me get washed up for supper Before your daddy gets home

She goes on about the weather How she can't believe it's already 1943 She calls me Raymond And that's all right by me

There's a small white cross in Arlington Reads Raymond Davis '71 Until she can see his face again I'm gonna fill in the best I can

When she calls me Raymond
She thinks I'm her son
Tells me get washed up for supper
Before your daddy gets home

She goes on about the weather How she can't believe it's already 1943 She calls me Raymond And that's all right by me

And she calls me Raymond And that's all right by me
