

My Redeemer (Into My Father's House)

Brian Doerksen

Jesus come, come reveal whose I am
Through Your death You have paid for my life
All of my sin has been forgiven through Your blood

So I come with confidence into my Father's House
I believe You are the lamb the prophets spoke about
On the cross You purchased me
My life's no longer mine, I'm Yours, my Redeemer

Jesus come, come reveal whose I am
Through Your death You have paid for my life
All of my shame has been exchanged for pure delight
