Backwater

Brian Eno

Backwater, were sailing at the edges of time Backwater, were drifting at the waterline Oh, were floating in the coastal waters You and me and the porters daughters

Ooh, what to do not a sausage to do? And the shorter of the porters daughters Dips her hand in the deadly waters Ooh, what to do in a tiny canoe?

Blackwater, there were six of us, but now we are five Were all talking to keep the conversation alive There was a senator from Ecuador who talked about a meteor That crashed on a hill in the south of Peru

And was found by a conquistador Who took it to the emperor And he passed it on to a Turkish guru

His daughter, was slated for becoming divine He taught her, he taught her how to split and define But if you study the logistics and heuristics of the mystics

You will find that their minds rarely move in a line So its much more realistic to abandon such ballistics And resign to be trapped on a leaf in a vine

Backwater, were sailing at the edges of time Backwater, were drifting at the waterline Oh, were floating in the coastal waters You and me and the porters daughters

Ooh, what to do not a sausage to do? And the shorter of the porters daughters Dips her hand in the deadly waters Ooh, what to do in a tiny canoe?
