

Rosemary

Brian Hyland

Rosemary, Rosemary, please take my hand
And walk with me through Lover's Land
Rosemary, Rosemary, by stars above
I vow right now, you'll have my love

You are like an angel dressed in white, so heavenly
You can answer all my prayers tonight by loving me
Rosemary, Rosemary, please say you're mine
So I can love you all the time
