I'm Alive

Brian Littrell

I lived a lot of life I caught a dream or two It's been a sweet ride But I've faced my share of nights Searched like we all do Looking inside Now I'm standing here 'Cause You've made it clear This heart inside me beats because You loved enough to take my cross I'm alive You gave Your life to shatter death So even after my last breath I'm alive I'm finally wide awake I'm finished being know It's a new day I feel it on my face In hope's a midnight sun That won't fade I'm bowing down And I'm crying out This heart inside me beats because You loved enough to take my cross I'm alive You gave Your life to shatter death So even after my last breath I'm alive Forever, forevermore Forever, Lord
