

Let Me Out

Brian May

I've been sleeping
I've been hiding
Beat my head against the wall
I've been crying
Just from staring
It was shamed of it all

Let me out
Let me out of here
We can fly away tonight
No one will know
We can fly away at night
No one will know

Hear me talking
Somebody laughing
It's a brand new love affair
Keep on dreaming
It don't matter
I can feel that fresh air

Let me out
Let me out of here
We can fly away tonight
No one will know
We can fly away at night
No one will know

Lord I've been waking
News is breaking
There's a world outside my door
We can take it
We can make it
And I won't ask for more

Let me out
Let me out of here
We can fly away tonight
No one will know
We can fly away at night
No one will know

(Not till tomorrow anyways
We can be miles away...)

Don't be grieving
Don't be pouting
Give yourself a holiday
Say you're leaving
Some day driving
Pack your bags up and shout

Let me out
Shout it out
Let me out of here
We can fly away tonight
And no one will know

We can fly away at night
And no one will know

Umm let me out
