

A Little Too Late

Brian McKnight

Forever was shorter than what i was thinkin, Now all we have left is yesterday, i guess i wasnt what you wanted, til u saw me turn and walk away, be stil u had me feelin small, when im six foot four fed up with you always comin up short, tired of all the games you play, funny how now, you've got so much to say to say...but you never

You never told me that you needed me the way that your telin me now you never told me that you missed me, til you saw me breakin up you never told me that you loved me, sorry for what im bout to say, but you're just a little to late.

What did i do,
What was i thinkin,
when i gave you my everything, my life, i forgot about me and i stopped listenin, lookin back i can finally see the light, you were happiest when i was all stressed out and losin hair, reachin out for you and you didnt care,

tired of all the games you play funny how now youve got so much to say, to say but you never told...

the way that your telin me now you never told me that you missed me, til you saw me breakin out you never told me that you loved me,
sorry for what im bout to say,
but you're just a little to late.

I know..
But why couldnt you tell me when i needed to hear it before
i know.. theres not much else to say this is heartbreak, heart tellin why the hell would i want to try again, theres no way that we could stil be friends, coz u never, u never told me

You never told me that you needed me (yeah) the way that your telin me now (yeah) you never told me that you missed me, (no, no) til you saw me breakin out you never told me that you loved me (hey yeah, hey yeah), sorry for what im bout to say,
sorry for what im bout to say
sorry for what im bout to say,
but you're just a little to late.
