

Fall 5.0

Brian McKnight

I can see clearly even if I was blind
You've got me really going out of my mind
Things that you whisper soft in my ear
Words I've been wanting so long to hear

I don't know if it's real but I know how I feel
It's so crazy, so amazing
You can take me now

Got my back against the wall
Feels like I'm standing ten feet tall
On the ledge, too close to call
If you push I just might fall

I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall

When you're not near me I long for your touch
When you're right here with me I can't get enough
The way I used to think, girl, will never be the same
You reside deeply in my heart and my brain

I don't know if it's real but I know how I feel
It's so amazing, so crazy
I can't shake you now

Got my back against the wall
Feels like I'm standing ten feet tall
On the ledge, too close to call
If you push I just might fall

I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall

Each and every moment without you is moment
Thinking about you and nothing will ever be the same
Waited a lifetime to find you, just want to stay right beside you
I won't let it slip away

Got my back against the wall
Feels like I'm standing ten feet tall
On the ledge, too close to call
But if you push, I just might fall

I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall
I just might fall
