

More Than Words

Brian McKnight

Nobody really wants to be the lonely
I'm a stay this way for now
I'm just trying my best to be honest and open
But I'm still learning how

I'm not saying that I'm hopeless
At some point it's got to be real

But I must confess that I'm more or less
Where I need to be
This is hard for me

'Cause I wanna hold you, I wanna touch you
It's the game I usually played
I wanna feel you, I wanna be with you
And I know just what to say
It would be the sweetest thing you ever heard
And despite all the things I wanna do to you
This time I'm gonna be more than words
This time I'm gonna be more than words

Ready to let somebody get to know me, yea
Not just only skin to skin
But to alleviate the pressure, pressure
Before we begin

Could you be that special somebody?
'Cause I'm so willing to wait

But I must confess that I'm more or less
Where I need to be
This is hard for me

'Cause I wanna hold you, I wanna touch you
It's the game I usually played
I wanna feel you, I wanna be with you
And I know just what to say
It would be the sweetest thing you ever heard
And despite all the things I wanna do to you
This time...

Being close to you only makes it worse
If we rush then somebody will get hurt
This is truly extraordinary
You might be the girl for me

Still I wanna hold you, I wanna touch you
It's the game I usually played
I wanna feel you, I wanna be with you
And I know just what to say
It would be the sweetest thing you ever heard
And despite all the things I wanna do to you
This time... I'm gonna be more than words
More than words
More than words
More than words
More than... words

More than words
More than words
More than words
