

Hot Down South

Bride

She gave the devil her soul, now she's crying
Voodoo in Louisiana, she's dying
Lost her dreams, torture and scream
Broken promises, he's lying

Clipped her wings now she's falling
She is deaf, the Savior is calling
Satan won the bet, on his private jet
Good-bye to ballroom waltzing

Hot down south tonight
It's hot
So hot down south tonight
It's hot

No amount of money can buy it back
All her loose change dropped through the crack
He could always shake her, now he wants to break her
In the back of his cadillac

Hot down south tonight
It's hot
So hot down south tonight
It's hot

Signed her name on the rosary
Unchained her greed like a deadly disease
Lost her chance, the girl got to dance
Forever lives with the guilt and shame

Hot down south tonight
It's hot
So hot down south tonight
It's hot

Hot down south tonight
It's hot
So hot down south tonight
It's hot

Bought an acre in a place called hell
They say that everyone's soul is for sale
If greed's our dream we may be awakened
To find it vanished and ourselves mistaken
