I Love You

If I were a ship on the ocean would you throw me a sail If I were locked away in a prison would yu pay my bail If I were thirsty in the desert would you give me a drink Naked on the scorching street would you walk right over me I love you I love you I love you I love you If I had no place to sleep would you give me your bed If I were a stranger in a strange land would you leave me for d ead If I was nailed to a cross would you scream save yourself If I became the curse would you remove the nails I love you I love you I love you I love you To the least of these you done to me To the least of these To the least of these you done to me To the least of these If I live in a glass house would you throw me a stone If I asked for only meat would you give me the bone If I asked for a fish would you hand me a snake If I begged for a single egg would you say just live by faith I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you
