

Kiss the Train

Bride

You always told me you can't be beat
Thought you had me bound, hand and feet
I can see your lies, pain and ecstasy
It's time I take control now, love comes quickly

You laid your cards down, you ain't so tough
Is that all you got, I will call your bluff

Kiss the train - I won't do it
Kiss the train - I'd be a fool
Kiss the train
Kiss the train, love, will you take me through

In my sleep I could feel the snake
Burning my body until it ached
Signed my name in blood, dream of salvation
The morning will come, my love, without reservation

You laid your cards down, you ain't so tough
Is that all you got, I will call your bluff

Kiss the train - I won't do it
Kiss the train - I'd be a fool
Kiss the train (NO)
Kiss the train - I won't do it
Kiss the train - I'd be a fool
Kiss the train
Kiss the train, love, will you take me through

Hallelujah, people

Take a deep breath
I'm no fool

Kiss the train - I won't do it
Kiss the train - I'd be a fool
Kiss the train
Kiss the train, love, will you take me through
