

Out for Blood

Bride

You're just a kiss away
Just, just a word away
You must go to your own place
Crying over eternal fate

Judas kiss, Judas kiss

Out for blood, you're out for blood, my love

You slip a note under the table
Wait, wait for a handful of change
You've grown weak, honour is lost
You got the ransom, He paid the cost

Judas kiss, Judas kiss
