Why Won't He Break

Indulging in the calamities Nun's faces down in the mud near the ridge Are their backs as strong as their faith? Soldiers march on a human bridge

Gorge with lust 'til you're fat with pride Elevate through darkness out of your mind Bruise the back with your sharp tongue Push down on his head and crush his lungs

Why won't he break Why won't he break

Laugh out loud 'til he goes deaf Tear at the heart within his chest His rob of flesh he won't deny Use ignorance as your alibi

Why won't he break Why won't he break Why won't he break (why won't he break) Why won't he break

Part the garments and smell the clothes Scent of death lingers in your nose Anger is ripe 'til the veins explode Hold him down, lay on the stone
