

Lost In Memories

Bridge to Grace

When you lay in a state of continuous numb past summer's love
In this world we are all never-ending
It's only real when we all keep pretending

How it all began, it's over now
Show you how we never tried

Maybe I'm dreaming
Maybe I'm disappearing
Fighting history
One day you'll see me
Run out of all these feelings
Lost in memories

Someone say that we're all meant to weather the storm
Close our eyes till it's safe to go home
You don't have to be running from reason
The only end is the one you'll giving

And how it all began, it's over now
I'll show you how we never tried

Maybe I'm dreaming
Maybe I'm disappearing
Fighting history
One day you'll see me
Run out of all these feelings
Lost in memories

After the storm
In a new light
There is a bridge
Not far away
Where all this was born
And out of the night
Every soul has come to life

Maybe I'm dreaming
Maybe I'm disappearing
Fighting history
One day you'll see me
Run out of all these feelings
Lost in memories
Lost in memories
Lost in memories
