Never thought I could feel So complete without your face And your plastic diamond rings

But there's a man who cannot see Driving in his Mercury Here beside these pointless things

I'm too young to be jaded
With wasted memory space of love that isn't real
As a matter of fact
You can take your stereo back
Cause I'm so done with, I'm so done with like
Cause it's all so pointless

Seven blocks, all backed up
With guys waiting just for me
It doesn't matter cause you go down the same road eventually

There's a dream I forgot Like a film without a plot Here's a story you should know

I'm too young to be jaded
With wasted memory space of love that isn't real
As a matter of fact
You can take your stereo back
Cause I'm so done with, I'm so done with like
Cause it's all so pointless

I won't waste all your talk Don't stop to speak in the hall

As a matter of fact You can take your stereo back Cause I'm so done with, I'm so done with like Cause it's all so pointless

I'm too young to be jaded
With wasted memory space of love that isn't real
As a matter of fact
You can take your stereo back
Cause I'm so done with, I'm so done with like
Cause it's all so pointless

I'd be stupid to think this could last Much longer than history class
I'm surrounded by a damn good time
And I'm not gonna miss it
