

Falling Into History

Brie Larson

It don't matter what people say I never did believe them
I know, I know they know everything
I'll be alright by myself and no one's gonna tell me
I'm defined, confined by love

Now our days seem strange
I guess my heart was bound to change

I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and you're falling into history,
I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and falling into history.

I never thought that I'd say that I don't really miss you.
I lived, I breathed your breath through me.
Time has a way of passing by until I don't remember
Why or how to hurt for you.

Life's pain has gone somewhere
And I'm fine leaving it there.

I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and you're falling into history.
I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and you're falling into history.

Falling into, falling into, falling into history

I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and you're falling into history.
I fell out, out of you and me
You're fading from view and you're falling into history.

I'll be alright by myself
And no one's gonna tell me I'm defined, confined by love.
