

I'll Be Your Emergency

Brigade

Chances on own
It seems we are repeated
In your darkened eyes
Now we fall apart
I'm breaking up the hours
Until you wear me out again

(I'll be your emergency)
Can you tell me there is another, another

I'll hold on to your heart, is
This all you've got to break my fall
The worst that you can say
Through this hurt

Parade the difference,
Give up all you've lost
You had it all, and I'm hanging on
My dear for dear life

Downside restlessly trying
To crawl into
My love take a good look
We are not working out

(I'll be your emergency)
Can you tell me there is another, another

I'll hold on to your heart, is
This all you've got to break my fall
The worst that you can say
In this world

Parade the difference,
Give up all you've lost
You had it all and I'm hanging on
My dear for dear life

Even though the day is dark this time we're fading out
I know you will be standing straight till the stars light

I have tried to burn the day and make it through the night
All this time in search of an exit

Tonight I
Nearly called you mine
