

Marked And Tied

Brightwood

Heavy eyes at the wheel again
Took me back in time
The sound of your voice
Now just white noise

Oh I tried, but I hate you tonight
Apologies are made to please
Marked and tied, we'll lose this fight
Tomorrow I resolve to go

Heavy chest every time I think it
Forgiving you is easy
But I tried to hold on
Well I'm not that strong

Oh I tried, but I hate you tonight
Apologies are made to please
Marked and tied, we'll lose this fight
Tomorrow I resolve

Oh I've tried to feel you tonight
To find a reason to believe
Marked and tied, we're worth the fight
Tomorrow I resolve to hope

Hold me tonight
We were not meant to be alone
